Report on “Mental wellness for Career Success”

A workshop on “Mental wellness for Career Success” was organised by IQAC of V.V.Sangha's S.K.College of Arts, Commerce & Science, Talikoti in association with “Skilling India” an IIM Alumni Venture.

Shri.V.C.Hiremath, Chairman College Governing body, S.K.College of Arts, Commerce & Science, Talikoti, inaugurated the workshop. Convenor of the workshop Dr.Anilkumar Aalamath welcomed the resource person and delegated and spoke briefly on the relevance of this workshop.

Ms.Dipika Minj who is a Master in Social Work from Loyola College, Chennai was the resource person of this workshop and she delivered a lecture on “Mental wellness for Career Success.” She spoke that many people lead busy lives in today's world. It is possible to carry a lot of stress and anxiety between work, family, and social obligations. An overload of responsibilities can take a toll on your mental health, especially if your profession is in a high-stress environment.

Further she talked on when it comes to career; stress and mental health can impact your performance. You may be less productive or engaged in your work. You may withdraw from co-workers or limit your communication with others. Mental illness, such as anxiety or depression, has been linked to higher rates of disability and unemployment. Your mental health can interfere with your capacity to perform physical and cognitive tasks.

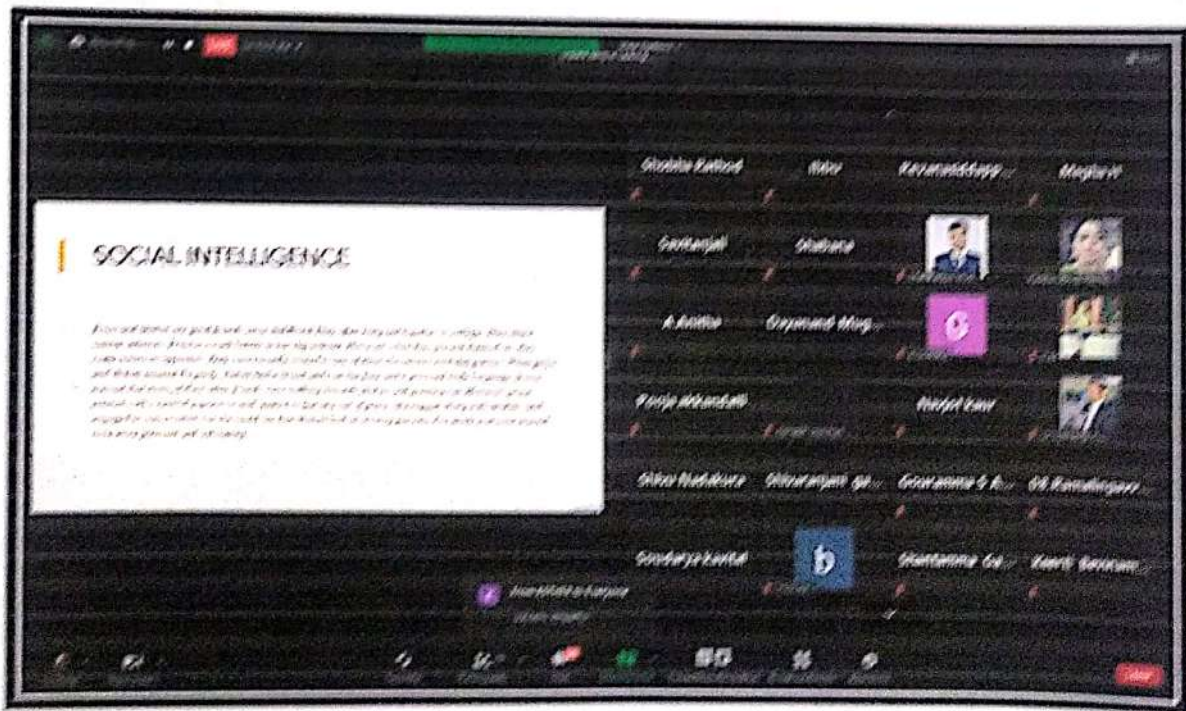

Dr.M.S.Patil, Principal of the college has given the presidential remarks. Prof.R.V.Jalawadi, Senior Professor & HOD of Commerce, Mr.T.V.Sankar and Team of Skilling India and staff members of the host college were attended the workshop in virtual mode.
